45 Years' Experience in the Retail Drug Business at Evansville, Ind.

"I have been associated with the retail drug business for 45 years, in which time I have handled a great many cough remedies. My attention was called to Dr. Otto's Spruce Gum Balsam three months ago, after which I purchased a few dozen. Since then the sale has been marvelous; in fact, outselling all other cough medicines combined. In all cases Spruce Gum Balsam has given entire satisfaction. I think Dr. Otto's Spruce Gum Balsam a wonderful remedy for coughs, croup and all bronchial troubles and recommend it to the public."

Bar Sinister.

One hundred and thirty-five years, one month and fifteen days ago to-day the British Parliament passed an act for the taxation of the American colonies, the money thus raised to be expended in and upon the colonies themselves.

The whole world knows what followed. It glows upon the brightest page of human history. It thrills from every fold of the freest flag that floats.

At the bidding of William McKinley a Congress of the Republic Wednesday drew across the shield of representative government the black bar sinister of tyranny and spat upon the graves of those who died on the battle-fields of liberty from Lexington to Yorktown.

Shall we wipe out that stain? Shall we reconsecrate those graves?

The platform that should be adopted at Kansas City was made at Washington yesterday. There is no room in that platform for minor issues, for past issues, for issues that cannot be affected by this campaign. There is room for just the one great issue—the Republic.

The Republic has been assailed. Its principles have been abrogated. Its institutions have been undetermined. And in this Porto Rican bill Privilege, Militarism and Imperialism throw down the gauntlet. There is no longer any possibility of deception or delusion.

Rarely has heavier responsibility been placed upon political leadership than that now resting upon the leaders of the Democratic party. The platform they adopt will be the test.—New York World.

If.

If Love were always rosy,
And knew no earthly ills,
And never went to pay the rent,

Then would the world go swinging
And heaven would kiss the hills.
If love were always rosy
